Announcing A New Website Launch Forty Carrots Family Center Kicks Off New Design and Functionality at WWW.FORTYCARROTS.ORG

SARASOTA, FL – Forty Carrots Family Center announces the launch of its newly designed website built in collaboration with CityMind Group and Be Creative Studios at www.fortycarrots.org. The website is easier to navigate, more functional and informative.

Visitors now have expanded capabilities to register for classes online, increased information about the expanded child & family therapy program, access to events and volunteer opportunities, as well as the ability to donate directly online. The layout includes a new blog where parents can find useful information.

“We know our clients rely on our site for class information,” said Michelle Kapreilian, executive director, “And, with the support of our partner vendors we can now expand access to online parenting information and communicate the mission and programs of Forty Carrots in a fresh and clear way.”
